Over 22,000 retail hardware dealers are enjoying the added profits that have come from sales of Roc-Edge Disposable Sabre Tooth Saw Blades. They like the convenience of the self-service feature and the repeat business that this true running, long lasting blade brings and they like the minimum, rock bottom inventory that they have to carry. An investment of only $24.04 puts the retailer in the saw blade business - and he can fill 90% of his requests. And now, Rocco has made available to the dealer the new 9 and 10 inch sizes as well as the hand electric 4 to 6 inch in fast selling combination packs. Also available are the famous Roc-Edge Hard Chrome Dado Sets in 4 1/2 and 6 inch sizes. These have proven most popular among the do-it-yourself fans. 22,000 happy hardware dealers can't be wrong.
